

— STYLE QUOTIENT | —

The Woman in Red

The glam doll lives her life passionately and dangerously, and redefines the rules of cutting-edge fashion. She paints the town red by donning avant-garde jewellery suffused with rubies and fancy-cut diamonds from the award-winning jewellery brand ASIAN STAR. Teaming the exciting jewels with classy all-white or all-red outfits designed by New Delhi-based SURBHI SHEKHAR, she is set to conquer the world.

The Red Carpet Look

The fashion diva wears an 18-karat white gold lariat composed of ravishing rubies, pearls and diamonds. The floral pendant integrates round, pear, marquise and baguette diamonds ending with tasseled ruby beads. The shoulder dusters in rubies, pearls and diamonds complement the necklace. Adding glamour to the look is a body-hugging, raspberry A-line dress made of habutai silk and organza enhanced with embroidered mesh on the chest plate and the panel below that has a detachable lining.

Uptown Girl

This live wire demonstrates a high degree of fashion, deciding to go with statement jewellery emphasised with red flaming rubies. The showstopper 18-karat gold hoops set with baguette-cut rubies get a fanciful framing with floral confetti of round, marquise and baguette diamonds. The hefty 18-karat white gold cuff, patterned with an array of leaves in round and marquise diamonds, is sprinkled with rubies. Adding a cutting-edge drama to the look is a sheer white organza tunic with a silk middle panel and a mesh yoke. The dress is further decorated with an embroidered corsage on either side from the waist down.

Red Hot

Blessed with a distinctive fashion style, the woman on the go opts for the 18-karat rose gold hoops featuring diamond-encrusted buckle links and rubies in pin setting. The diamond-set scalloped rose gold lace cuff interlinks diamond and plain gold motifs highlighted with opaque rubies and champagne diamonds. Adding heaps of chutzpah is a side slit silk-chiffon pleated ombre raspberry dress with a décolletage enhanced with a corsage of pink roses.

Fuchsia Fashion

She sports an outsized 18-karat white gold cocktail ring spotlighting a triangular rose-cut diamond with a surround of baguettes, further lined with oval rubies and round diamonds. The stylised paisley-shaped 18-karat yellow gold orange peel earrings are outlined with drop-shaped rubies superimposed by pear-shaped diamonds settled against diamond-studded crescent pockets. Softening the intensity of the crimson red, she matches the jewels with an off-shoulder dress with a white printed organza top and an asymmetric draped bottom with a sprinkling of sequined embroidery.

Scene Stealer

The gal believes in showing off her sartorial chops and works the white attire to her advantage – flared high-waist trousers and the organza floral jacket with loose sleeves is the just the right way to go with the ruby and diamond sizzlers. A unique station bracelet mounted in 18-karat pink gold adorns her wrist; each mesh disc is packed with rubies and bears an open diamond-studded floral pattern. The colourful rocks adorning this hefty ring made of 18-karat gold feature a ruby in the centre encircled by pear-cut diamonds and yellow cape diamonds. The shank is festooned with baguettes in channel settings fringed with round diamonds.

Scarlet Fever

She looks effortlessly glamorous in a high-neck, embroidered organza crop top and a lace skirt with skin colour lining. She steps out for a ball wearing irresistible 18-karat white gold crescent-shaped earrings with a central flower of rose-cut diamonds on a micropave-set diamond base augmented with irregular ruby strips in channel setting. Adding an edge is the unique boat-shaped ring crafted in 18-karat white gold. The marquise ruby at the crown is set off by a fringe of baguettes and an intricate filigree pattern on the broad shank filled with diamonds.

